9. The general management of the affairs of the Fund shall be vested in and vest with the Board of Trustees.

10. The Board of Trustees shall function notwithstanding that there may be no representatives or an insufficient number of representatives of any of the bodies or organizations mentioned in paragraph 5 above on the Board and notwithstanding that any person who is entitled to be a Trustee by reason of his office is not a Trustee for the time being and notwithstanding any other vacancy in the Board of Trustees, and no act or proceeding of the Board shall be invalidated merely by reason of the happening of any of the above events or of any defect in the appointment of any Trustee.

11. The Board of Trustees may make byelaws for the regulation, management and for any other purpose connected with the execution of the Fund and the trusts thereof.

12. The Board of Trustees may appoint one or more committees and such officers and staff as it may consider necessary.

13. The Board of Trustees may delegate any of its powers to any committee or to any one or more members of a committee. The Board or any committee may also delegate any power to one or more officers of the Fund so far as such delegation relates, in the opinion of the Board or the Committee as the case may be, to merely ministerial acts and involves no discretion or is necessary and conformable to common usage.

14. The Trustees and members of Committees shall not be entitled to any remuneration but will be entitled to be reimbursed their actual travelling expenses in respect of journeys to attend the meetings of the Board or the committee or undertaken by them for the purposes of the Fund.

15. A Secretary, Treasurer and such other officers as the Board may consider necessary shall be appointed by the Board and their remuneration shall be fixed by the Board.

16. Regular accounts shall be kept of all monies and properties belonging to the Fund and shall be duly audited.

17. All contracts relating to the administration of the Fund shall be in the name of St. Dunstan's (India) and signed on its behalf by at least one Trustee or by the Secretary of the Fund.

18. It shall be lawful for the Trustees to expend for the objects of the Fund as mentioned above either the corpus or the income of the monies and properties of the Fund or any part thereof. The Treasurer of Charitable Endowments shall apply the monies and properties of the Fund or the income thereof in accordance with the directions of the Board of Trustees given from time to time.

19. It shall be lawful for the Trustees to direct the Treasurer of Charitable Endowments to sell or otherwise dispose of any property of the Fund vested in him and invest the proceeds or other disposal of the property in any securities, immovable or movable properties, or other investments as the Trustees may think proper and the Treasurer of Charitable Endowments shall carry out such direction.

20. The Board of Trustees may receive any additional endowments, donations or other contributions in augmentation of any of the monies and properties of the Fund or for the general purpose of the Fund. They may also receive endowments, donations or other contributions for any special purpose connected with the charity, not inconsistent with or calculated to impede the due working of the provisions of this Scheme.
